

Caption from The Salt Lake Herald-Republican (20 Aug 1915): Member of the executive committee of the national suffragists' convention and prominent local women supporting national political freedom for woman, snapped with Senator Reed Smoot, to whom they had just appealed for support of their movement in the next Congress. So enthusiastic were the executive committee over Senator Smoot's answer to their appeal that they insisted their picture be taken with them [outside of the Hotel Utah].
