

Suffragists & Train Travel

This is the original Central Pacific/Union Pacific train station in Corinne, Utah. It is likely that Susan B. Anthony arrived and left Utah through this train station, using the recently completed Utah Northern to get to Salt Lake City. Courtesy of Utah State Historical Society.

Group of State Presidents & Officers of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, 1892. Photo courtesy of Bryn Mawr College Library Special Collections.

Suffragists & Train Travel

Susan B. Anthony and the Rev. Anna Howard Shaw with leading Utah and Colorado suffragists at a suffrage convention in Salt Lake City, May 1895.